Metaphors and Similes

Metaphors and similes are fundamental tools in figurative language, enabling writers to draw comparisons that illuminate their themes.

- Metaphors: Direct comparisons that equate one thing with another, often symbolically. For example, describing a character's resilience as "a fortress of hope" suggests strength and unbreakable spirit.

- Similes: Use "like" or "as" to compare two unlike things. For instance, "her words were like a soothing balm" conveys comfort and healing through imagery.

In "The Gifted Hands," authors often use metaphors and similes to create striking visuals that deepen the reader's understanding of characters' emotions and the story's themes.
